

Skagit Inholdings, Skagit County

Skagit Inholdings, Skagit County

- This proposed acquisition project consists of two properties totaling approximately 20 acres. One property is located adjacent to the Milltown Island Unit and the other adjacent to the DeBay Slough Unit, of the Skagit Wildlife Area.

Skagit Inholdings, Skagit County

- This project would acquire inholding properties in two locations, both identified to expand habitat management and public recreation opportunities.
- Both properties border the Skagit River. One contains riparian off channel habitat and the other is connected to estuarine marsh.
- The habitat at these sites are valuable to waterfowl and shorebirds, bull trout, and a variety of salmon to include chinook.
- Recreational opportunities support waterfowl hunting, fishing and wildlife viewing.

