Summary

Meeting dates: March 4, 2016 (conference call)

Agenda item: Puget Sound Recreational Clam and Oyster Season Changes (rule change action)

Presenter(s): Philippa Kohn, Puget Sound Intertidal Bivalve Program Manager, Fish Program

Background summary:

Changes to the recreational clam and oyster seasons on Puget Sound public beaches are recommended annually in order to maximize recreational opportunity while preventing overharvest of the state shares. Season changes are recommended based on the results of annual clam and oyster population surveys, expected recreational effort, the frequency of low tides, and taking into consideration public health concerns and administrative needs. For 2016, shellfish staff recommend clam and oyster season changes to 14 public beaches based on survey and effort information. Of these proposed 14 changes, 9 beaches will have longer seasons compared to 2015, 3 will have shorter seasons, and 2 will have their opening dates shifted. In addition, there will be season and/or WAC language changes to 19 clam and oyster beaches based on public health considerations, and to 18 beaches to meet in-house administrative needs.

Staff presented the above rule change proposals to the Commission at a public hearing on February 26-27, 2016.

Purpose of the proposal and its anticipated effects, including any changes in existing rules:
 Recent clam and oyster survey data, sport harvest projections, and negotiations affecting intertidal treaty and non-treaty fisheries, along with public health considerations and administrative tasks, call for recreational clam and oyster seasons to be opened or extended on some public beaches and requires some beaches to be closed, removed, or the seasons shortened. This proposal reflects those openings and closures.

Reasons supporting proposal: The proposed amendments to recreational clam and oyster rules will perpetuate shellfish resources while maximizing recreational harvest opportunity and protecting public health.
