Effective date of rule: Emergency Rules	Agency: Department of Fish and Wildlife (Order 24-220)
Immediately upon filling. Later (specify) October 3, 2024
Any other findings required by other provisions of law as precondition to adoption or effectiveness of rule? □ Yes ⋈ No If Yes, explain: Purpose: The purpose of the emergency rule is open commercial gillnet fisheries in Willapa Bay commercial salmon areas 2N and 2M. Citation of rules affected by this order: New: Repealed: Amended: WAC 220-354-250 Suspended: Statutory authority for adoption: RCW 77.04.012, 77.04.020, 77.12.045 and 77.12.047 Other authority: EMERGENCY RULE Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds: □ That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest. □ That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule. Reasons for this finding: This emergency rule is needed to open the commercial fishery in Willapa Bay Salmon Management and Catch Reporting Areas 2N and 2M on October 3, 2024. The catch for the Willapa Bay commercial fishery for Chinook, coho, and chum have been lower than preseason predictions. The estimated preseason impacts for natural origin (NOR) Chinook to-date for the season are 150 fish, or 35.3% of the preseason prediction for weeks 33 – 39 combined. The total harvest for Willapa Bay commercial coho is 17,430 fish to-date, or 56.0%, of the preseason prediction through statistical week 39. The commercial fishery in this one-day opener will target additional hatchery coho available. The total chum harvest in the Willapa Bay commercial fishery to-date is 253 fish, or 0.79% of the preseason estimates. Managers will continue to assess the fishery each opener and make any changes if warranted. All other rules remain in effect.
